Title change

At the beginning, I translated the title of this manwha as "Flower day".
The female main character of this manwha is "Haru" which has the same pronunciation as "Day" in Korean language.
I overlooked this and simply translated the title as Flower day. As I went on, I realized the purpose of the manwha is that Haru is (or will become) pretty and also realized "Day" meant "Haru"

So, the title of this manwha has been corrected to Pretty Haru.

I am sorry ...
It wasn't really intentional, I swear ...
Out of all people, she had to pick him to spill her drink ..
His nickname may be the crazed dog, but he is more like nightmare.
